

5,000 BARBERS ON STRIKE;
TRIMMED OF TIPS, 'TIS SAID

However, Nobody Seems to Know
Exactly What the Trouble
Is All About.

About 3,000 barbers employed in Italian shops in Brooklyn and Harlem went on strike to-day. After storming some shops in Harlem they were able to add 200 to their number. All of the strikers belong to the Journemans Barbers' Union, and nobody seems to know exactly what the strike is about.

The union heads say it is not authorized. Vice President C. F. Foley says to-day that it is "a local affair." The strikers say some bosses violated the agreement made three months ago. The bosses say the strike is a fizzle.

"It's a question," said Tony Maresi, Secretary of the Bosses' Union, "whether we're going to run our shops or the barbers. We made an agreement, and I think the men in the union to stick to it. Some of the barbers haven't been getting as big tips lately as they did under the longer hour system and they're sore."
